MINISTRY OF INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING

NOTIFICATION

New Delhi 2, the 15th May 1961

No. 4/4/60-FI—The rules of the International Film Festival of India, 1961, are hereby published for public information, namely:—

Rules

1. The Festival is organised by the Government of India with the cooperation of the Film Federation of India.
2. The object of the Festival is to provide a forum for the participating countries to present films of artistic and cultural value and a high technical standard and contribute to the development of motion picture art and technique.
3. The Festival will be held in New Delhi from 27th October to 2nd November 1961, in Calcutta from 1st to 7th November, in Madras from 6th to 12th November and in Bombay from 11th to 17th November 1961.
4. The Festival will be non-competitive, Souvenirs will be presented in respect of films accepted for participation in the Festival through the official delegation
5. Films will be admitted for presentation in the following categories, namely:—
  - (a) Feature films
  - (b) Short films, including documentary, informational, educational and scientific films, cartoon films, puppet films etc.
6. Only films in 35mm width will be eligible for participation.
7. Each participating country will be entitled to send a maximum of two films in each of the two aforesaid categories, viz., feature and shorts. The length of shorts entered by a country should not exceed, 1,500 metres in all.
8. An entry may be made by the Government or alternatively by the representative film organisation of the country. The entry will be made in Form 'A' hereto annexed.
9. Only such films as have been produced or released on or after 1st January 1960, will be eligible for entry. Films in languages other than English or an Indian language, must have sub-titles in English or Hindi.
10. Films entered in the Festival should not have been shown in India prior to the Festival. There is no bar to the entry of a film shown at a festival in any other country.
11. Each participating country should notify its intention to participate in the Festival to the Festival Directorate before 15th May 1961. Entries to the Festival should reach the Festival Directorate by 1st July 1961. A print of the film entered, along with two copies of its synopsis and other publicity material in English or Hindi, should reach the Festival Directorate by 1st August 1961.
12. The Festival Directorate will be responsible for the viewing and selection of films for presentation at the Festival.
13. Each participating country may be represented by a delegation. Delegates, not exceeding two from each country—one of them shall be a prominent artiste—will be the guests of the Festival Directorate. Expenses on the board and lodgings of the guest delegates as also on their travel in India will be borne by the Festival Directorate.

The travel expenses from their country to India and back will, however, be borne by the delegates themselves. Particulars of the delegates attending the Festival should be communicated to the Festival Directorate by 1st September 1961, in Form 'B' hereto annexed.

14. Transportation and insurance of prints and publicity material of films from the country of origin to the Festival and back will be at the expense of the entrant.
15. Prints of films will be accepted at the risk of the participants and, while the Festival Directorate will take every reasonable care thereof, it cannot accept responsibility for the loss of or damage to the prints while in its possession.
16. The print of films entered in the Festival, publicity material and all correspondence relating thereto should be addressed to:—

The International Film Festival Directorate,
Ministry of Information and Broadcasting,
Government of India,
New Delhi-2.

Telegraphic address: "Information", New Delhi.
17. Participation in the Festival will be regarded as acceptance of these rules.
18. The Festival Directorate will decide on all matters not expressly provided for in these rules and its decisions thereon shall be final. The Directorate reserves the right to make a relaxation, in special circumstances, from any of the provisions of these rules in any individual case, with the approval of Government.
